Report of the Add-On Course on Gender Studies: An Introduction

This report summarizes the proceedings and outcomes of the Add-On Course on Gender Studies, highlighting its significance in promoting gender equality and empowering individuals to address gender-related challenges effectively.

Course Overview:

The Add-On Course on Gender Studies aimed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of gender-related issues, including sexuality, feminism, and women's studies. Through a series of lectures and discussions led by esteemed speakers, the course delved into historical contexts, contemporary debates, and practical applications in various societal settings.

Key Highlights:

- The course commenced with an inaugural session led by DR SIBSANKAR PAL, the OIC, providing insights into the course's theme and objectives.
- Various topics including gender, sexuality, feminism, and patriarchy were explored by distinguished speakers such as DR PRASENJIT SAHA (KEY RESOURCE PERSON), DR NITISH GHOSH and DR SHUBHADIP DEBNATH, AIDUL HAQUE, PRITIN DUTTA
- Discussions on historical trajectories and contemporary issues were facilitated, offering participants a holistic understanding of gender studies.
- The course concluded with an examination and a valedictory session, followed by the distribution of certificates to the participants.

The Add-On Course on Gender Studies provided a platform for robust discussions, critical analysis, and knowledge dissemination on crucial gender-related topics. Participants gained valuable insights into theoretical frameworks, practical applications, and societal implications of gender studies. The diverse range of topics and expertise of speakers contributed to the success and enriching experience of the course.
