Brief Summary of the Course

The College arranged an array of add-on courses for the students during the summer vacation 2025, with the central objectives to provide students with additional skills and knowledge beyond their core curriculum, enhance employability and career prospects, and also boost their self-confidence and develop their personality. It can foster a well-rounded education that contributes to their overall growth and opens new dimensions in their academic journey. The short-term course on Peace and Justice was organised by the Department of Philosophy, Political Science, and History in Blended mode during the last week of the summer vacation (i.e. 23/06/2025 — 30/06/2025). The objectives of the course were to shape the character of the students and to boost their skills in applying the concept of right and justice and to practice peace in their personal and social lives. This course made them aware of the theoretical and pragmatic sides of the concept of peace and justice which is also important for their preparation for job-oriented competitive examinations. The keynote address of this 7-day-long add-on course was delivered by the Honourable Officer-in-charge of the college Dr. Sibsankar Pal. Seven dedicated faculty members (Maumita De, Md. Najir Hossain, Gopal Mondal, Priya Tudu, Pallabi Chatterjee, Muklesur Momin, and Prayana Subba) of our college delivered their valuable lectures on the field of their expertise. The veteran professor Dr. Nandita Bagchi, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Philosophy, Sister Nibedita Government General Degree College for Girls was invited as the resource person. Students were enriched by her thought-provoking lecture. Seventy-five (75) students enrolled themselves to take the course out of whom Forty-one (41) students completed their course successfully after passing the end-of-course examination. Miss. Maumita De, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Philosophy, Government General Degree College, Tehatta had acted as a course coordinator.
