Report:

The Philosophy Department of Government General Degree College, Tehatta had organized a Special lecture on ‘ Dharmaniti o Dharmadarshan: Bharatiya Dharar Charcha’ on 31st August, 2023. The total number of students who participated in this Lecture was 30. The Head of the institute Dr. Shibsankar Pal addressed the welcome speech with his insightful thoughts. The theme address was delivered by Dr. Liza Dutta, Head of the Department of Philosophy. She perfectly described the context of Indian Ethics with relation to Indian Philosophy of Religion. Then the special guest Dr, Debraj Chakrabarty delivered his lecture. Dr. Debraj Chakrabarty's lecture on "Dharmaniti o Dharmadarshan: Bharatiya dharar charcha" provided an insightful exploration of Indian moral and ethical principles within the broader context of its cultural and historical heritage.

Key Points:

1. Historical Evolution: Dr. Chakrabarty commenced the lecture by tracing the historical evolution of Bharatiya Dharmaniti, highlighting its deep roots in ancient Indian scriptures and epics. He emphasized the continuity and adaptability of these principles across different epochs in Indian history.

2. Holistic Approach: The speaker elucidated on the holistic nature of Bharatiya Dharmaniti, emphasizing its encompassment of individual conduct, societal harmony, and cosmic balance. This holistic perspective resonated with the audience, highlighting the interconnectedness of various aspects of life.

3. Dharma and Duty: Central to the discourse was the concept of "Dharma" and its significance in guiding individuals towards righteous conduct and moral obligations. Dr. Chakraborty expounded on how understanding one's Dharma can lead to a fulfilling and purposeful life.

4. Contemporary Relevance: The lecture also delved into the contemporary relevance of Bharatiya Dharmaniti in addressing pressing global challenges such as environmental degradation, social inequality, and ethical dilemmas. Dr. Chakraborty's insights prompted reflection on how ancient wisdom can inform modern solutions.

5. Cultural Continuity: Throughout the session, emphasis was placed on the importance of preserving and promoting Bharatiya Dharmaniti as an integral part of Indian cultural identity. The audience was encouraged to delve deeper into these timeless principles amidst the backdrop of rapid societal changes.

Conclusion: Dr. Debraj Chakraborty's lecture provided a thought-provoking exploration of Indian moral and ethical principles. The lecture fostered a deeper understanding of Bharatiya Dharmaniti's historical significance, holistic approach, universal applicability, and contemporary relevance, reaffirming its enduring relevance in navigating the complexities of human existence.
