Report

The History Department of Government General Degree College, Tehatta, organized a vibrant seminar on 'Bengal Renaissance-Nineteenth Century Bengal' on 8th September 2023. The seminar aimed to explore the Bengal Renaissance and its significance in Indian history, with a focus on the contributions of Indian thinkers and reformers within the framework of Indian Knowledge Systems, including Vedic and Puranic traditions, Dharmashastra, and Arthashastra. Eighty-two students participated in the seminar, including some enthusiastic alumni of the History Department. The seminar commenced with congratulations from the OIC of Government General Degree College, Tehatta, Dr. Sibsankar Pal, and two guest speakers, Dr. Saswata Kushari and Mr. Abhijit Saha. Welcome address by Dr. Sibsankar Pal, OIC, highlighting the importance of understanding Bengal Renaissance through the lens of Indian Knowledge Systems. - Mr. Raghunath Roy, Head of History Department, discussed the seminar's scope and aim, emphasizing the need to contextualize Bengal Renaissance within Indian intellectual traditions. Then, the first guest speaker, Mr. Abhijit Saha, Assistant Professor of Political Science at Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam Government College, delivered his insightful thoughts on Raja Rammohan Roy's contribution to the Bengal Renaissance. Mr. Saha's presentation highlighted Raja Rammohan Roy's engagement with Indian Knowledge Systems and his role in bringing about social reform, which was a key aspect of the Bengal Renaissance. Next, Dr. Saswata Kushari, Assistant Professor of English at Government General Degree College, Gourbathan, shared his insightful thoughts on the colonization of education in 19th-century Bengal. Dr. Kushari's presentation examined the far-reaching impact of colonization on Indian Knowledge Systems, highlighting the need for decolonization and the reclaiming of indigenous knowledge traditions. The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Pallabi Chatterjee, Assistant Professor of History, who emphasized the importance of understanding the Bengal Renaissance through the lens of Indian Knowledge Systems. Mr. Chatterjee's vote of thanks acknowledged the valuable insights shared by the speakers and the significance of contextualizing historical events within Indian intellectual traditions.
