Workshop on "Rabindranath O Muktodhara"

Date: 9th May 2023

Organized by Department of History

Academic Year: 2022-23

REPORT

The workshop "Rabindranath O Muktodhara", held on 9th May 2023 at the Seminar Room, was a thought-provoking and enriching experience that successfully explored the relevance of Rabindranath Tagore's ideas in modern times. The highlight of the workshop was the launch of the Muktodhara Wall Magazine (1st Edition), showcasing the creative works of students and faculty members.

The interactive session with Dr. Shibsankar Pal was engaging and insightful, delving into the depths of Tagore's philosophy and its applicability to contemporary society. Cultural performances and presentations added a unique flavor, demonstrating the versatility of Tagore's works.

The exhibition of rare books and manuscripts related to Rabindranath Tagore was a treasure trove for literature enthusiasts, while the screening of documentaries on Tagore's life and works provided a comprehensive understanding of his legacy. The panel discussion on the impact of Tagore's legacy on contemporary society was a fitting conclusion, highlighting the timelessness of his ideas and their relevance in addressing modern challenges.

Overall, the workshop "Rabindranath O Muktodhara" was a resounding success, offering a unique blend of intellectual discourse, cultural performances, and creative expression. It served as a testament to the enduring legacy of Rabindranath Tagore and his continued influence on our lives.
