WOKRSHON ON BHATOTER SWADHINOTA SONGRAM O TAR GOTIPOTH''

DATE: 15: 08/2023

ORGANIZED BY HISTORY DEPARTMENT

ACADAMIC YEAR: 2022-23

REPORT

The workshop "Bhatoter Swadhinota Songram O Tar Gotipoth", held on 15th August 2023, was a thought-provoking and enriching experience organized by the History Department. The event aimed to explore the struggles and contributions of freedom fighters during India's independence movement and their significance in shaping the country's history.

Dr. Shibsankar Pal's inaugural speech set the tone, emphasizing the importance of remembering and learning from the past. The programme was a fitting tribute to the freedom fighters and their legacy, inspiring appreciation for the value of independence and the sacrifices made to achieve it.

Raghnath Roy's comprehensive speech and PowerPoint presentation skillfully wove together historical context, key events, and personal anecdotes, creating a captivating narrative that resonated with the audience.

The speaking sessions on freedom fighters included:

- Rimpa De (6th semester) on Matangini Hazra's life and legacy
- Partha Sharma (2nd semester) on Bhagat Singh's contributions, highlighting his courage, conviction, and sacrifice
- Rimpa Mandal (2nd semester) on Surya Sen's role, highlighting his bravery, strategic leadership, and enduring impact
- Patima Das (2nd semester) on Bina Das's contributions, highlighting her defiance, advocacy for women's education, and enduring impact
- Pritam Roy (1st semester) moved the audience with his poignant tribute song, capturing the essence of patriotism and sacrifice

The workshop was a resounding success, offering a unique blend of intellectual discourse, cultural performances, and creative expression. It served as a reminder of the enduring impact of the freedom struggle on our lives and our nation's history.
